Now here's a tip!
 by Jo Ann Derson

* If you're expecting your first child, heed this bit of advice: Assemble and otherwise try out complicated items right away, while you have the time to learn how to work them. New dad Dan had a heck of a time trying to load bags into his brand-new Diaper Genie in the middle of the night.

* Bloodstains on clothing can be really tough to treat. The best way to get a bloodstain out of clothing is by dousing the stain with hydrogen peroxide and washing immediately as usual.

* "I love to refinish and paint furniture pieces and woodcrafts. I always check my local recycling center for small amounts of "recycled" paint. Usually, someone has gotten rid of good paint, and the people at the recycling center are happy to have it used."

—B.B. in Virginia

* Toothpaste works well as a silver polish. Wet your silver, plop a little non-gel toothpaste on it and rub gently with a damp, clean rag. Rinse well with a separate rag, and buff dry. Then just step back and let it shine.

* If you've ever oversalted soup, don't worry; here's a great tip to recover your meal. Just cut a single potato into several large slices. Add them to the soup, and they will soak up the extra salt. Remove before serving.

* S.W. of South Carolina has this tip to share: "If you can't seem to keep track of your keys, make an extra set for those mornings when you are running late and can't spare the time to look for them. It has saved me a lot of stress, for sure."

Send your tips to: Now Here's a Tip, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.

Paradise (TV-MA) — This drama series starring Sterling K. Brown (Atlas) seems so perfect for network television that it's surprising it was developed for streaming only. Brown plays secret service agent Xavier Collins, the righthand man to President Cal Bradford (James Marsden). A relentless agent who stops at nothing to defend the president, Xavier receives the shock of his life when, one day, he finds the president lifeless in his quarters. As an investigation commences, the president's sudden death is shrouded in secrecy and lies by the White House, leaving Xavier to reveal whether foul play is at work. (Hulu)

Diddy: The Making of a Bad Boy (TV-MA) — It was only a matter of time until the documentaries would start following the arrest of rapper/record executive Sean Combs (aka Diddy) for sexual misconduct. Peacock is the first with a documentary out now that details Combs' childhood, his rise into the music industry, and now the recent sexual abuse allegations. Guest interviews include past bodyguards, childhood friends, accusers, and former employees of Combs' label Bad Boy Records. The allegations started to be taken seriously after footage was released of Combs assaulting his ex-girlfriend Cassie Ventura in 2016, but people in the documentary maintain that his criminal behavior began well before Ventura was subjected to it. PICKS OF THE MONTH

Nosferatu (R) — Director Robert Eggers first made plans to develop a remake of the 1922 silent film Nosferatu back in 2015, and it took some time for him to get his passion project off the ground. After being teased for so long, the gothic horror finally came to fruition and landed Bill Skarsgard (It), Nicholas Hoult (Juror No. 2), and Lily-Rose Depp (The Idol) as its leads. Skarsgard's eerie transformation into Count Orlok is his best work yet, with the cast describing the palpable fear of his character while working on set. Willem Dafoe, Aaron Taylor-Johnson, and Emma Corrin co-star as other townspeople whose lives are suddenly connected through a chilling experience with the count. Out now to rent. Caller's Kid Creates Some Confusion

Bob calls for our local Bingo about once a month. This time he brought his four-year-old son along and he entertained us throughout the evening. He was fascinated by the balls bouncing in the glass-fronted container and the light-up Bingo board. He helped his daddy call and was pleased with himself that he knew the numbers.

He came to our table and made friends. "I can play Bingo," he said. "I know my numbers."

"Do you know what a Bingo is?" asked Kate.

"It's just a line, isn't it?"

"Sometimes," said Kate, "and sometimes it is in a different shape. I could help you."

"Okay," he said, but as soon as the balls started bouncing, he was off to watch them, giggling with pleasure.

"I think he's a little young," I said.

"I don't know," said Kate. "Let's try him out on something simple. How about the Bonanza?"

"Might be okay," I said. "That will be a simple blackout. He can play one of mine."

We arranged him at the table with a Bonanza card. This time the bouncing balls did not draw him away as a different machine was used. He was thoroughly caught up in the game and was soon on for B4. "That's how old I am," he said. "I bet I get it."

He bounced on his chair and kept chanting "B4, B4," quietly as he waited. But then the number came up and he jumped up and cheered. "Bingo, Daddy. I've got a Bingo."

He was not eligible for the win, as he had not purchased a buy-in. He was so ecstatic over winning that I could not even consider taking the card back and claiming it as my own. The whole Bingo Hall went into "pause" mode.

The final decision rested with the caller, but the caller was the child's father. The little boy looked hopeful. Bob just looked confused. "I don't know what to do," he said. "What do you think?"

I thought furiously and came up with an idea. "Could we donate the winnings to the Children's Hospital?" I asked. "That would seem to take care of who wins."

"That's a great idea," said Bob. "The winnings will be donated to Children's Hospital."

Kate unobtrusively pulled a ten-dollar bill from her purse. "This is for you," she said to the expectant child. "For being such a good sport."

"Oh," said the little boy. "Does this mean I can come back and play Bingo again?"

"Not in my lifetime," said Bob. "Not unless your mother comes along."

BINGO LAND

NEWS FROM THE REAL WORLD & CYBERSPACE

Million Dollar Bingo

A Winnipeg woman claimed Canada's largest Bingo Millions jackpot of $1 million at Club Regent Casino last year, without even realizing she was the latest member of the millionaire's club. "The lady sitting beside me said, 'You just won a million.' I was like, no way and she's like, 'Yes you did.' Then I was surrounded by workers like I robbed the place, which I kinda did," Monica Bouma joked. "It still hasn't sunk in yet."

Bouma and her boyfriend were at Club Regent to play bingo and Bingo Millions and to get an early start celebrating her upcoming birthday. "He'd never played bingo, so he said, 'Since you like playing, you can teach me.' He was expecting a beginner's lesson, not an expert one," Bouman joked. "I looked at my screen and it showed two numbers away (from a bingo). The next two numbers were mine and I'm like, 'I got a bingo.'"

Bouma is looking forward to taking life a bit easier and spending more time with her daughter. Monica won the $1-million jackpot by covering her Bingo Millions card in the first 47 numbers or less. The game is only available in Canada at the Casinos of Winnipeg, which was the first Canadian property to offer it in December 2022.

friendship bracelets, and bonding with fellow Swifties. Feel free to come dressed as your favorite Era—whether you're channeling Fearless, 1989, or Midnights. It's a night you won't want to shake off!" This is a great idea to attract people of all ages to come out and play bingo.

Illegal Operator Boasts Online

The Kansspelautoriteit (KSA), the Dutch Gaming Regulator, sanctioned a Facebook user in the Netherlands for advertising and operating illegal games of bingo. While the identity of the individual hadn't been made public at press time, they were described as running a Facebook page called "Baco's zaalbingo" where they were selling tickets to bingo games and bingo booklets. Many of these games were held via livestream on the Facebook page. Not only did the Facebook account holder not have a license, but the prizes were "far above the maximum allowed by the law." Bingo games can only be offered by associations that have existed for at least three years, yet the operator admitted on Facebook that he's been doing it since 2022 and is not licensed. He is also not acting on behalf of any charities, as the proceeds benefit him directly. If he continues to offer bingo he may face penalties of €13,125 per bingo with a maximum of €131,250.

Shake It Off at Bingo!

Here's a fun idea for a themed Bingo night: Taylor Swift Music Bingo. A bingo in Schrewsbury, Massachusetts recently announced a special themed game with an advertisement that stated: "It will be a chilly evening, so bundle up with your red scarf or cardigan and join us at Taylor Swift Music Bingo. Sing along to your favorite hits while enjoying light refreshments, making

Real Cash, or a Scam?

Dear Aunt Bingo:

When I'm playing games on my phone (shhh) I often see ads for Bingo games where you can win real money, in particular one called Bingo Cash. I thought playing bingo online for cash was illegal, is this a scam, or what? I see tons of online Bingo sites when I search around, including one that Drew Barrymore plays?! Is this the same sort of game as the Bingo Cash app?

—Georgia Games Girl

Dear GGG:

Online Bingo has become hugely popular, which I'm sure you discovered when you began your search. I personally prefer to play real world bingo, so I'm no expert on apps and online games, but I did some research on Bingo Cash and it does technically appear to be legit. It is a free to download app, available on iOS and Samsung, and you can play for free and win real cash. Bingo Cash allows play for free using gems or free bonus cash; but be warned the Bingo Cash points system and booster options make this game tricky to learn according to some users. If you win cash prizes, you can withdraw the money via PayPal, but there's a $5 withdrawal minimum, plus a $1 processing fee. What many see as a problem with Bingo Cash are the annoying prompts that pop up telling you to deposit real money in order to play in tournaments with cash prizes. Industry experts do not think this solicitation for cash is legit. Concerns have been raised about the fact that players can lose real money chasing these tournament wins. Bingo Cash has more than 147,000 reviews on the App Store with an overall rating 4.7 out of 5 stars; negative reviews mention the complicated interface and those annoying pop-up promos. That said, you can, technically win cash.

The game that Drew Barrymore endorses is Bingo Blitz, and anyone can sign up and start playing for free—the site gives you free credits to get you started, and there are various opportunities for players to accrue more credits as they play. The game does NOT have cash prizes. This site is best known for building a sense of community among its players with an emphasis on collaboration, and trading and chatting among players.

While in my opinion no online bingo can come close to replacing real world bingo, if winter weather or some other calamity keeps you from making it to your favorite game, I'd certainly recommend an online site such as Bingo Blitz over the apps like Bingo Cash that promise real money, but make it extremely difficult to win that money, and very tempting to waste it.

Notations used in this article:
 S17 = Dealer must stand on soft 17
 H17 = Dealer must hit soft 17
 DAS = Doubling down after pair splitting is allowed
 NDAS = Doubling down after pair splitting is not allowed
 H = Hit
 S = Stand
 P = Split
 Dh = Double down if allowed, otherwise hit
Multi-Deck Game
 Regardless of the playing rules, use the following strategy when facing a dealer's seven upcard.
 Double down if allowed, otherwise hit if holding:
 • Hard 10 and 11
 • Pair of 5s
 Split if holding:
 • Pair of As, 2s, 3s, and 7s and 8s
 Hit if holding:
 • Hard 5 through 9
 • Hard 12 through 16
 • A-2 through A-6
 • Pair of 4s and 6s
 Stand if holding:
 • Hard 17 through 20
 • A-7 through A-9
 • Pair of 9s and 10s.

Your 7 Upcard Playbook

When a dealer shows a 7 upcard, they have about a 26% chance of busting and about a 74% chance of getting to a final hand that totals 17 through 21 (rule dependent). Because of the latter, we have to be more aggressive when we are dealt a stiff hand (hit rather than stand) and less aggressive when we are dealt a two-card soft hand (hit rather than double down).
 What follows is the accurate blackjack playing strategy for any hand in which the dealer shows a 7 upcard.
 Fortunately for blackjack players, the playing strategy against a casino dealer's 7 up card is nearly the same for any number of decks of cards or mix of playing rules. There is one exception and you'll find it below.

AS I SEE IT

by N. L. Preston
March Laptop Misery
Computers and humans have a lot in common. They start with abundant memory and drive but become outdated as they age. Then, they start crashing unexpectedly and need replacement parts to stave off the black screen of death. —Ms. Know-It-All

All right, dear readers, as I write this column for the second time in a week, I am very angry with myself. I was told and did not listen until disaster struck and turned my laptop screen black. Oh yes, the black screen of death appeared with two small messages: can't find hard drive and no memory. Eek! I immediately did what most of you do, panicked, then restarted my laptop repeatedly to no avail; followed by cursing and crying. My laptop had years of Bingo Bugle columns on it as well as other documents I had saved for future reference. All are gone, not to mention photos and other memorabilia that I cherished. I had been warned to do back-up, but I never got around to it. Hurriedly, I called my tech guru to tell him I was bringing him my sickie laptop and I shared with him its screen messages. He asked, did you back up your stuff? I replied, no. He sighed and explained that probably my laptop was beyond resuscitation, but he would take a look. He called the next day to confirm the bad news; that I should say goodbye to years of documents, photos, and every other thing stored on her. My procrastination has cost me dearly, so, dear readers, if you value what's on your tech devices, don't delay as I did. Back everything up one way or another so you don't have to throw a funeral for your dearly departed laptop; while trying to kick your own dumb ass for not doing so earlier. I am getting a new laptop which will auto back-up all my info to the cloud. I'm so old though that I probably won't have much to back-up this time around. Btw, I'm using my husband's old desktop computer to finish this column and praying it also doesn't crash. St. Pat's Day is March 17, so wear orange if you're Protestant as Catholics traditionally wear the green. Either way, this is the day we eat Irish stew or corned beef and cabbage—and look for leprechauns so we can steal their pots of gold. To summon good luck for bingo or otherwise, here are some suggestions. Cut your hair, but only in the moonlight. Once done, do not give a hair lock to your romantic partner unless you wish her/him bad luck. Next, watch out for black cats who wander into your path. If that happens, make a triangle with your fingers and spit through it. Third, good luck will come to those who put cinnamon sticks close to the money in their wallet/purse. And last, upon getting home after St Pat's partying, tie a telephone wire around your shoes. Now, since we have become a cell phone world, I don't know how this will work, but you might try putting your cell phone inside your shoe. If the phone smells bad the next day, hold it away from your face, and turn up the volume. Let me know if any of this works by contacting me at nlpvzw6172@gmail.com. Until next month, may Lady Luck bow you kisses as you dance out the door with dollars. Win big.

BROOM-HILDA By Russell Myers

- CHILI COUNTRY-STYLE
- 2 pounds ground beef
 - 1 tbsp. olive oil
 - 1 medium onion, sliced
 - 2 stalks celery, chopped
 - 1 cup sliced mushrooms
 - 1 green pepper, chopped
 - ½ tsp. Morton Nature's Seasons
 - 1 garlic clove, chopped
 - ½ tsp. cumin
 - 1 tsp. chili powder
 - 1 28-ounce can diced tomatoes
 - 1 10.75-ounce can tomato puree
 - 1 27-ounce can chili beans

Country-Style Chili

Dear Ask Annie, Do you have any recipes for chili? My Dad used to make it for us when we were kids, but I can't find his recipe. MarySue, Springfield, Illinois

Dear MarySue, My late husband Donald used to make delicious chili. It's an easy recipe, too. Feel free to add other kinds of beans as well: pinto, cannelloni, etc. Enjoy! —Annie

Using a large Dutch oven, sauté the ground beef in a tablespoon of olive oil. Add the onions, celery, mushrooms and green peppers. Continue to stir until the meat is cooked. Add the seasonings according to taste. Allow to simmer for at least 1-2 hours, stirring occasionally. We serve with crackers and cheddar cheese. This recipe serves 8.
