may make you seem smarter, but most likely will have people thinking you have an odd obsession with pecans. -Pecans are a great source of protein, fiber, and healthy fats. -They contain more antioxidants than any other nut. -Pecans can help lower cholesterol and reduce the risk of heart disease.

-The American Heart Association considers pecans a heart-healthy food.

-Pecans are the only nut native to North America Pecans are a versatile nut. One easy treat

I often make is a simple mix of pecans and raisins—a super basic trail mix. Other uses: -Sprinkle pecans in your favorite salad.

-PECAN PIE!!! I really like pecan pie in case that wasn't obvious.

-Add to just about any cake recipe (and icing).

-Toast in the oven with your favorite spice mix.

-Coat them with something sweet like honey or chocolate.

-Add them to sweet bread recipes like banana bread, pumpkin bread, and zucchini bread. -Add chopped pecans to your morning oatmeal thing, while walnuts were more of a northern -Pecans are a delightful addition or chicken or tuna salads.

Are you as nuts about pecans as I am? Enjoy National Pecan Month!

HOLLYWOOD — Fans of former Superman Henry Cavill are desperate for him to be the next James Bond, judging from their efforts to mislead people with a bogus trailer of him as 007 on social media! The trailer co-stars (thanks to AI technology) Barbie herself, Margot Robbie, in certain action scenes. It flooded social media, and many believed it was real.

Barbara Broccoli, who inherited the franchise from her father, Cubby Broccoli, in 1996, will probably go for a younger actor than the 41-year-old Cavill, who didn't fare well as a CIA agent in The Man From U.N.C.L.E (2015). The spy film only grossed $110 million against its $75 million cost. His exposure as a ruthless, burly CIA assassin who was bested by Tom Cruise in "Mission: Impossible — Fallout" (made $791.7 million) may be hard for 007 fans to forget.

Aaron Taylor-Johnson, 34, is most often mentioned as the front runner to play Bond. Cavill's more preoccupied these days with the baby girl he and girlfriend, Natalie Viscuso (vice president of Vertigo Entertainment), welcomed in January. He began filming Voltron, a sci-fi action film based on the animated series of the same name. It began shooting in December in Queensland, Australia, with Sterling K. Brown and Rita Ora.

Meanwhile, Margot Robbie is in the United Kingdom shooting a reboot of the 1939 MGM classic Wuthering Heights. She stars as Catherine Earnshaw (who was originally played by Merle Oberon, opposite Laurence Olivier's Heathcliff). Robbie's version of Catherine will star opposite Jacob Elordi's Heathcliff for a February 2026 release.

New VA Secretary Doug Collins

Changes are coming fast and furious at the Department of Veterans Affairs. Since these impact many of us, we need to pay attention to what's going on - and who's now in charge.

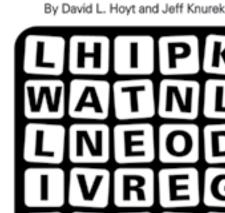

The VA has a new secretary, Douglas A. Collins, the 12th in the position since the VA was started in 1988. Collins is an Air Force veteran, served as chaplain, has been a Reserve colonel for 23 years and additionally served for two years in the Navy. He served in Iraq and at his confirmation hearing said that he slept next to burn pits for many months. He's an attorney and was a U.S. representative for a Georgia district from 2013 to 2021.

Quite the resume, and the Senate vote to confirm him was fairly strong: 77 to 23.

He's jumped right in, saying he wants to expand the VA's private sector care and figure out how to get rid of employees who aren't doing their job. He stopped the employee teleworking right away, insisting people come back to work, and put a hiring freeze in place until things shake out and they see if there are any vacancies once people decide if they're staying or going. Further, he vowed to fix the $16 billion computer system that's been sitting unfinished for two years.

Sometimes you just want to see a man and hear his voice before you make up your mind about him. Go online to YouTube and look for "Doug Collins opening remarks in Veterans Affairs secretary confirmation hearing.'

Watching that video, I liked things about him that have nothing directly to do with the VA and the position he's been given, but instead tell what kind of a man he is. He's been married 36 years, he still has a bracelet a female Airman made for him when he was a flightline chaplain 15 years ago and he thanked his 88-year-old father. In the end, those things matter. I wish him well.

BINGO LAND NEWS FROM THE REAL WORLD & CYBERSPACE

Bingo Big in Brazil Bingo, which has had a turbulent legal history in Brazil, is on the verge of a legitimate comeback. While the game was banned in the early 2000s due to concerns over money laundering and illegal gambling, a legislative shift is currently on the table. Having passed the approval of the Senate in 2024, dedicated new bills are expected to reintroduce bingo halls under a more regulated framework. This would provide significant opportunities for both local and international investors. Brazilian Senate projections envision 1.5 million direct and indirect jobs and potential annual revenues of R$22bn, benefitting states, municipalities and the central government. Indeed, recent legislative changes are reaching further. After finetuning the sports betting and online casino rules in 2024, industry stakeholders expect a comprehensive framework for lotteries, bingo and land-based casino facilities. This regulatory evolution is part of a broader effort to modernize Brazil's gambling sector, moving it away from state monopolies.

Furbaby Bingo a Hit

There are many reasons to attend the annual Furbaby Bingo event in Goldsboro, North Carolina—from the fun to the stellar prizes, but it is also an important fundraiser for the Animal Welfare League of Wayne County to help improve the lives of companion animals around Wayne County. The fundraiser was first held in 2024 and raised $2,000, according to Donna Archer, board secretary. "It may not sound like a lot, but that money is very important. We used the money to start a spay, neuter voucher program, and we had 44 spayed. We gave $500 to the shelter for food around Christmas time," Donna says. When Hurricane Helene hit, they took a big hit in donations. But despite that they went to work gathering donations of pet food—a collection drive that turned so big that the YMCA partnered with them. They drove seven box trucks worth of supplies to western North Carolina with pet food in each one

Lower the Pressure

UK company Buzz Bingo recently collaborated with LoSalt and the Stroke Association to reduce stroke risk and promote heart health, launching a new initiative to help reduce high blood pressure and stroke risk throughout the UK. Working with LoSalt and the Stroke Association, Buzz Bingo introduced LoSalt at its venues in Gateshead and Stockport, areas which have been identified as stroke hotspots. This came ahead of Stroke Prevention Day on January 30th, where Buzz Bingo hosted a live-streamed charity bingo game in all of its clubs, to raise money for the Stroke Association. On top of this, there are other fundraising activities with the aim of raising £200,000 ($248,296.07) by the end of this year. Buzz Bingo Head of Brand Communications Mark Fletcher said: "We're empowering our customers to make informed decisions about their health while supporting the Stroke Association's vital work."

Dear Aunt Bingo,

An unfortunate situation occurred at a local Bingo hall. At the beginning of each Bingo session, all 75 Bingo balls are placed on a tray and verified by both a player and worker, making sure no balls are missing or cracked. Once checked, the balls are dumped in the machine hopper.

After 40 games and 3 and a half hours of Bingo playing, a few players noted that O-71 had not been called even once all night long. Curious, we went up to the call stand and asked to see all 75 balls.

Sure enough, O-71 was missing, later to be found on the floor under the call stand! Apparently when the tray of Bingo balls was emptied into the machine, O-71 didn't quite make it into the hopper.

One Bingo player who needed O-71 for a $1,199 Blackout was livid, demanding to be paid for a Blackout she had no chance of winning due to the missing O-71. The manager refused to pay her $1,199 and offered this explanation:

BROOM-HILDA

"If we pay you, then we would have to pay everyone who needed O-71 for a Bingo or Blackout this evening.'

"There is no guarantee that O-71 would have been one of the 58 numbers called during the Blackout game." Knowing this Bingo number missing was just an accident, how should the manager have dealt with it? Give everyone who played a refund?

How would you react if you found out a Bingo number you needed for a large payout wasn't in the machine, but rather on the floor under the call stand?

—Jim Metzger, Portland, Oregon

Dear Jim,

That's an easy question to answer: If I had been waiting for that O-71, I would be furious! And I would want those two dopes who didn't see the ball falling to the floor to > pav me!!! There. Now that I have finished my rant, I > will address the rest of your story.

My closest experience to this was a Bingo session at a local community center where a particular ball also did not come up. About three-quarters of the way through the session a sharp-eyed player saw that a ball was stuck in the corner of the blower. When it was jiggled loose it was revealed to be the "missing" ball.

After that, all hell broke loose. Losers were furious, winners were afraid they might lose their winnings—it was not a pretty scene. The hall manager finally announced that anyone was welcome to a refund due to the technical error. The majority of players took their money and walked...including two people who had won jackpots!

To me, a refund is the only fair way to deal with the situation. The mistake was not intentional, and the manager was rightthere was no guarantee the number would have come up for the angry winner. But the number of balls was wrong, so the entire session is a forfeit. —Aunt Bingo

Give it a try and discover the fun of rolling in the dough! Here's what you'll need:

— 3 cups lukewarm water

-1 1/2 tablespoons granulated yeast

-1 1/2 tablespoons kosher salt - 6 1/2 cups unbleached all-purpose flour

Mix together ingredients in a 5-quart foodgrade lidded bucket or container. Cover loosely, let rise at room temperature for about 2 hours, then refrigerate for up to two weeks.

Bake some of the dough now, if you wish. To prepare a loaf, cut off a grapefruit-sized piece of dough, sprinkle flour on it, and briefly shape it into a ball with flour-covered hands. Allow it to rest for 40 minutes on a pizza peel or a wooden board covered with parchment paper (or sprinkled with cornmeal).

Twenty minutes before baking, preheat oven to 450 F. Then set a baking stone on a rack in the center of the oven and an empty broiler tray on the lower rack. When ready to bake, dust the top of the loaf with flour. An adult should make a 1/4-inch-deep crisscross slash on top with a sharp knife and slide the dough onto the baking stone. Pour a cup of hot water into the broiler pan before closing the oven door.

Bake for 30 minutes, or until crust is browned. Let cool. Slice and serve.

Get rolling in the dough with this amazing no-knead recipe that bakes up to four 1-pound loaves of tasty artisan bread for around $2. I'm not kidding — less than $1 a loaf! It's not only easy on your budget but also quick and effortless to prepare, as authors Jeff Hertzberg and Zoe Francois describe in their best-selling book that created a buzz far and wide: Artisan Bread in Five Minutes a Day.

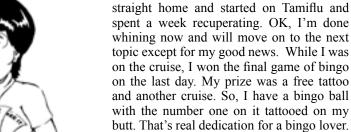

When I stopped by Zoe's kitchen, her active sons were home from school, shaping dough for their own pizzas. "Inventing nutritious recipes and eating together are important to our family," said Zoe. "When kids get involved in cooking and baking healthy foods, they'll eat what they make."

Get Back Jack

We met Jack at a Native American casino where we were intrigued by his approach to Bingo. He played the game as if it were an opponent he had to defeat. First, he chanted, then implored, then tried to bribe for the number he wanted. "Come on, Baby," he would say. "Gimme a four, a four, a four," or "Fifty-five that's my number. I'll take you for a drink if you give me fifty-five." "Whom are you talking to?" I asked.

"The gods of chance," he said. "Or anyone who may be listening."

Then he had symbols that were supposed to have special meaning.

"Dime on the free space. Dime on the free none of that. space," he'd say and actually put a dime on the middle square.

"Yellow, yellow, yellow submarine," he'd say, using his yellow marker and daubing wildly.

I was surprised he ever won anything with all that activity going on, but he did and quite regularly. Once, he grabbed my card and exchanged it for his own. He promptly won and gave all the winnings to me. "Because you deserve them," he said.

"Damn right." I said under my breath 'That was my card."

He had other rituals he observed along the way. Like, taking off his cap, turning it around three times then putting it on backwards.

Then we were on to a special game, so we had to pay careful attention to our cards.

"Oh, I'm on," said Kate excitedly. "Come on eleven. Come on eleven." Then Jack was also on for twelve and I felt

grabbed for her card. She wasn't letting go, however, and held her card out of reach.

"I just want to absorb some energy from this winner," Jack explained, but Kate was having none of it and blocked him until the floor worker showed up to verify her card. "Now may I touch it?" asked Jack.

"No," said Kate as she turned her chair slightly away from him.

Another game came up and we were obliged to pay attention to our cards.

"I was on again," moaned Jack. "I am coming so close. If you had let me touch your card, I would have won."

Kate ignored him and he began to chant "yellow submarine," just loud enough to annoy me a bit, too.

Just before we were done for the evening, Jack won and was ecstatically happy.

"I want to take you out for drinks or dinner to celebrate," he said. But Kate was having

"You have provided us with enough entertainment to last a whole week. We will just take what we've got and be thankful. See you next time." And with that she walked out of the building.

One-Pot Lemon Garlic Shrimp and Rice: A Dish That's Easy, Elegant, and Surprisingly

Shrimp, once seen as a splurge, has become a frugal choice — not because shrimp prices have dropped, but because everything else has gone up! This seafood favorite is now an economical protein compared to the skyrocketing costs of beef, chicken and even eggs. Pair that with one-pot preparation, and vou've got dinner that's easy on your wallet

One-pot recipes streamline prep, cooking and cleanup, leaving you with more time to enjoy your meal and less time spent scrubbing dishes. This dish is fast, flavorful and destined to become a weeknight favorite.

16 ounces uncooked shrimp (41-60 size). thawed and peeled

- 1 fresh lemon, see note below*
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 4 cloves garlic, minced
- 1/2 cup red bell pepper, diced
- 2 cups long-grain white rice 2 cups chicken broth
- 1 teaspoon Old Bay Seasoning

2 tablespoons chopped parsley (optional)

Prep the Ingredients: If using frozen shrimp, thaw and peel before starting.

*Zest the lemon, reserving the zest. Slice lemon in half, juice half the lemon (about 2 tablespoons juice) and slice the other half Saute the Garlic and Rice: Heat a deep skillet over medium heat. Add butter and garlic, and red pepper, sauteing until fragrant (1-2 minutes). Stir in the rice and continue sauteing for another 1-2 minutes until the rice begins to toast lightly. You might hear a faint crackling sound.

Add Liquid and Seasoning: Carefully pour in the chicken broth, water, lemon juice and half the lemon zest. Stir in the Old Bay and parsley. Give everything a good stir to combine.

Cook the Rice: Cover the skillet with a lid and bring the mixture to a boil over mediumhigh heat. Once boiling, reduce the heat to low and let it simmer for 12 minutes.

Add the Shrimp: After 12 minutes, most of the liquid should be absorbed. Lift the lid briefly to scatter the shrimp across the top of the rice. Replace the lid and continue cooking on low for 5 minutes.

Let It Rest: Without removing the lid, remove the skillet from the heat. Let it rest for an additional 5 minutes. During this time, the shrimp will finish cooking, becoming pink and opaque.

Fluff and Serve: Gently fluff the rice with a fork, mixing in the shrimp slightly. Garnish with the reserved lemon slices, lemon zest and a sprinkle of fresh parsley, if desired. Serve hot and enjoy!

To save time, use pre-minced garlic or frozen shrimp that's already peeled.

Want to switch up the flavors? Try Italian seasoning with a sprinkle of Parmesan for a Mediterranean twist, or black pepper and grated Parmesan for a cacio e pepe-style dish. Craving spice? A dash of Cajun seasoning, or smoked paprika adds a bold kick. For a fresh take, toss in fresh dill and a touch of crumbled feta. Love warm, aromatic flavors? Stir in a pinch of curry powder and a splash of coconut milk for a subtle, creamy depth.

Or go zesty with lime juice, cilantro and a hint of chili for a vibrant, Southwestinspired version.

The combination of tender shrimp, fluffy rice and bold seasonings — whether it's zesty lemon and garlic, smoky Cajun spice or a Mediterranean twist - makes this dish a winner. We hope you try your favorite variations and love it as much as we do!!

Q: Is there really going to be a Legally Blonde series? Will Reese Witherspoon star in it? — K.S.

A: Yes, there is a Legally Blonde project in the development stages at Amazon MGM Studios. Reese Witherspoon's production company Hello Sunshine is behind the project, but it's not known what kind of onscreen presence, if any, she'll have since originating the role of Elle Woods in 2001. The series is actually a prequel, and another actress will play young Elle. Lexi Minetree (The Murdaugh Murders) recently secured the role.

There were plans for a Legally Blonde 3 starring Witherspoon, but it's been delaved since 2022. No word on whether it will see the light of day or if they'll just focus on the prequel series.

SENIOR NEWS LINE by Matilda Charles Don't Fall for Medicare Scams

Medicare card scams are on the rise. During one calendar year, Medicare had over $100 billion in fraudulent claims, and the damage cost goes up when identity theft and stolen financial information are added in.

What the Medicare thieves want is your card number, and they'll try any number of tricks to get you to reveal it.

Scammers might contact you to offer you a "cheaper" Medicare but will need your personal information to sign you up.

They might impersonate a Medicare employee and say that your card is about to expire and you need a new one. They'll ask for your current card number and your personal information to verify it's really vou. (Wrong: Medicare cards don't expire.)

Scammers might call and say that your Medicare benefits have been canceled, but claim they can help you get the benefits reinstated if you give them your personal information or even a fee. (Wrong: Medicare won't communicate with you that way, and if they need to contact you, it will be by mail.)

Thieves might try to claim that your old paper card isn't good now and that you need a new one with a chip in it, like a credit card. (Wrong: Medicare cards are only made of paper.)

They might offer you a refund of some type or something free, or you might be offered genetic testing. All you need to do, they'll say, is give them your Medicare card number ... and your bank information for the refund.

Whether vou're contacted by phone. email or text message, don't give out your Medicare card number or any of your personal or financial information.

As usual, if you suspect you have a scammer on the phone, hang up immediately. If you believe it was an attempt at a Medicare scam, call 800-MEDICARE (800-633-4227) to report it.

Know the Implied Odds By Jonathan Little

Whenever you face a bet at the poker table, it is important to consider your immediate risk, your future potential risk, and also the amount you can potentially profit. Sometimes you should play speculative hands — like small pairs and suited connectors - and other times they should be folded.

Suppose someone raises to two big blinds (bbs) and you have a solid speculative hand like the 8c6c on the button, which is likely the worst hand at the moment but can improve to a premium hand like a flush or a straight.

The amount you can potentially win from your opponent should be one of your main concerns. If you can only win a little bit from your opponent because they have a short stack of perhaps 26bbs or fewer, you should fold because the potential reward (26bbs) is not worth the risk (2bbs). This is expressed as 13:1 implied odds. You have to invest 1 unit to potentially win 13. If you are both deep stacked with 100bbs though, you should play because you will then be getting 50:1 implied odds.

As a generalization, in order to profitably play a suited connected hand like 7c7s or a marginal suited Ace like the Ah7h, you need to be getting 20:1 implied odds or more, assuming you do not expect to be able to win the pot by bluffing too often. With small pairs, you need about 10:1 implied odds. If you are not getting the correct implied odds either because the stacks are shallow or the initial

Winging It

Dear Annie,

We are having a big party and I want to serve chicken wings. Can you make some suggestions for recipes? Thank you. Marilyn D from The Villages, Florida

Dear Marilyn,

I love chicken wings. Here are three of my favorite recipes. If you are serving a big crowd, prepare all three recipes. —Annie

SWEET AS CAN BE WINGS

- 3 lbs. chicken wings  $\frac{1}{2}$  c. honey  $\frac{1}{4}$  c. soy sauce 4 T. brown sugar 1 clove garlic, crushed <sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub> cup catsup Salt, to taste
- Pepper, to taste Paprika

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees. Line a shallow baking pan with aluminum foil. Place the chicken in the pan. Sprinkle with raise is too large, you either have to fold or use your hand as a reraise bluff.

While small pairs, suited Aces, and suited connectors have implied odds, some hands have reverse implied odds, meaning they will usually either win a small pot or lose a large pot. The hands that have the worst reverse implied odds are a big card with a small card that are not suited, such as Ks6c or Qd7d. Imagine you see the flop and make top pair, which is normally a strong hand. If you bet and all your opponents fold, you can be confident you had the best hand, but you are rewarded with only a small pot. If instead you bet and someone calls or raises, they could have a better top pair than yours or a worse hand, but you have no way of knowing which.

If you bet the flop and they call, if you continue betting on the turn and river, you will find that when you get called, it will usually be by a better hand, resulting in you losing a large pot.

Because of this, hands with large reverse implied odds should not be played in most situations, especially in multi-way pots or when the stacks are deep.

As stacks get deeper and the pots are played multi-way, you are more incentivized to speculate with hands that will either lose a little or win a lot, which are primarily the small pairs, suited Aces, and suited connectors. Folding the non-premium offsuit hands will keep you out of trouble and save you a lot of monev salt, pepper and paprika. In a medium mixing bowl, combine the honey, soy sauce, brown sugar and catsup. Pour over the chicken wings. Bake for 35 to 45 minutes. Test for doneness. Makes 18 servings.

BUFFALO CHICKEN

3 T. fat-free margarine 2 T. hot pepper sauce, or more to taste 1 tsp. canola oil

3 lbs. chicken wings ¼ tsp. salt

1/8 tsp. freshly ground black pepper 3 celery stalks, cut into 24 (1-inch) pieces Blue Cheese dressing

Melt margarine in a medium nonstick saucepan. Whisk in pepper sauce and cook for 1 to 2 minutes, or until slightly thickened; set aside. Heat oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Season chicken with salt and pepper, add to pan, and cook, turning occasionally, until browned on all sides, about 6 minutes. Add margarine mixture to pan and gently toss chicken until well coated, 1 to 2 minutes. Serve with celery pieces and blue cheese dressing. Serves 18.

FIVE SPICE CHICKEN WINGS

2 scallions, chopped  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup soy sauce  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup drv sherry <sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub> cup brown sugar 2 tsp. Chinese 5-spice seasoning 1 tsp. sesame oil 4 lbs. chicken wings

Using a large heavy saucepan, combine all of the above ingredients except the chicken. Bring to a boil for a medium heat. Add the chicken and simmer. Stir constantly. Cook for 30 minutes with a lid on the saucepan. You can find the seasoning in an Oriental grocery, if not available in your regular grocery store. Serves 12.

out of your pocket without detection. Women: To keep your purse from being stolen, don't carry one. Wear a fanny pack instead. If you must take your purse, wrap the strap around your wrist or hang it across your chest when playing a slot machine or when visiting the restroom. Never place your purse on the floor between your feet or beside a slot machine.

Also be aware of teams of petty grabor large amounts of money. When checking and-run thieves. A common ploy is for in at an upscale hotel, ask whether there's a a team member to throw a ticket or lowsafe in your room. If there isn't, ask about denomination bill onto the floor next to the victim and say something like, "Hey, lady, you dropped something onto the floor." And when the victim looks down at the object, the thief's accomplice hits the cash-out button and scoots off with the ticket.

April 2025

ARIES (MAR 21-APR 20): With your ruler moving through Cancer, you've entered an intense phase of change. Prepare to shed old identities that no longer serve your wellbeing. Let them drop away without fuss. Discipline applied to any project or pastime will pay off big time now. Lucky Days: 7 - 29

Lucky Numbers: 8 - 19

TAURUS (APR 21-MAY 21): With spring in the air, April is an excellent month to take a short journey to free your mind from troubles or pressures. Bulls benefit when they get outside and settle into nature. This revitalizes all aspects of your character. No other sign is as closely aligned to the Earth as yours.

Lucky Days: 9 - 11 Lucky Numbers: 3 - 44

GEMINI (MAY 22-JUN 21): You're contemplating life's big questions now, and you'll benefit by finding someone to assist you with your desire to know and understand more. Don't shy away from aligning with a teacher or instructor who can guide you into new paths of inner illumination. Lucky Days: 23 - 27

Lucky Numbers: 28 - 50

CANCER (JUN 22-JUL 22): You're like an oven with its temperature set permanently to high this month. There is so much baking going on; you need to schedule some timeouts so you don't burn out this month. The full Moon on the 12th allows you to leave a relationship that doesn't serve you. Lucky Days: 7 - 11 Lucky Numbers: 4 - 25

LEO (JUL 23-AUG 23): Ask yourself where you should focus your time and attention. Facts and truths are essential to acknowledge now. This might require taking some time away from fantasizing and dreaming and making firm declarations about where you're headed and how you are getting there.

Lucky Days: 3 - 11 Lucky Numbers: 29 - 49

VIRGO (AUG 24-SEP 23): With so many planets in your opposite sign now, you might feel like the odd man out. But don't let this period of high tension dull your spirits. You are being given a crash course in how to mature gracefully. Honor the skills you've developed. Use them.

Lucky Days: 6 - 18 Lucky Numbers: 33 - 39

LIBRA (SEP 24-OCT 23): The full Moon in your sign on the 12th initiates a series of abrupt revelations regarding your social life. You are looking to spend more quality time with fewer individuals. You're an excellent negotiator. Find ways to skillfully ask for what you wish to receive from others. Lucky Days: 5 - 12

Lucky Numbers: 3 - 49

SCORPIO (OCT 24-NOV 22): Modern culture puts undo pressure on being positive. But sometimes, you need to allow yourself to complain and be dissatisfied. This is a great month to acknowledge disappointment and turn irritation into inspiration. Don't pull punches.

Lucky Days: 1 - 11 Lucky Numbers: 33 - 52

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 23-DEC 21): Find ways to express your unconventional nature. Your untethered side must be allowed to roam free this month. Remember, half of your zodiac symbol is a horse! The full Moon on the 12th will enable you to turn your poetic perspective into a reality. Lucky Days: 7 - 9

Lucky Numbers: 21 - 50

CAPRICORN (DEC 22-JAN 20): Explore what irritates you most this month. It doesn't serve you to keep a lid on your frustration. It's not good for your health. The full Moon on the 12th puts your work relationships under the spotlight. You may need to confront a colleague who isn't giving credit where it is due.

Lucky Days: 4 - 8 Lucky Numbers: 33 - 46

AQUARIUS (JAN 21-FEB 19): If you are frustrated now, it is most likely related to out-of-whack power dynamics. You prefer your independence, but sometimes, to get the results you desire, you'll need to commit firmly to a strict schedule that promotes getting results.

Lucky Days: 4 - 17 Lucky Numbers: 6 - 35

PISCES (FEB 20-MAR 20): Inspiration is heightened by those in your close circle who openly acknowledge your gifts. There's nothing like appreciation to settle the heart and foster a sense of security in a crazy world. Let others know how much you care, as well. Lucky Days: 18 - 25 Lucky Numbers: 33 - 39
